

RESIDENTIAL LIVING

Our residences provide individuals living with a brain injury an opportunity to live in a comfortable home where they can maintain or improve their current level of functioning. Residential settings provide 24-hour supervision and varying levels of support, depending upon the resident's needs.

IMPAIRMENT TYPE

Acquired brain injury	89%
Spinal cord dysfunction	7%
Neurological disorders	2%
Other	2%

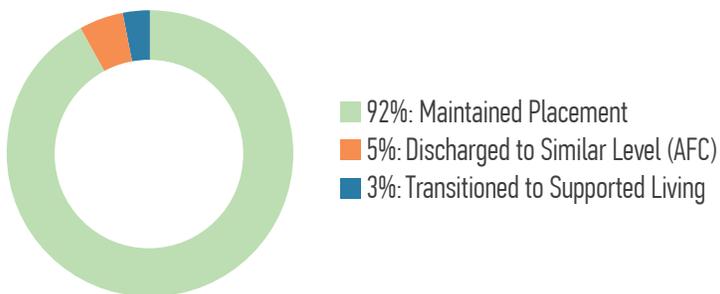

RESIDENT PROFILE

Residents Served	103
Residents Discharged	11
Average Length of Stay	9 years, 2 months
Average Hours of Therapy per Week	4.5
Average Resident Age	53
Percent Female	28%
Percent Male	72%

*Number of children aged 0-12 = 0; adolescents aged 13-17 = 0

PROGRAM STABILITY

SUPERVISION-LEVEL STABILITY

88% MAINTAINED OR ACHIEVED A MORE INDEPENDENT LEVEL OF PLACEMENT

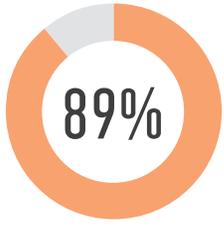

As measured on the Supervision Rating Scale (SRS).

I FEEL THAT HNNR IS BEST AT:

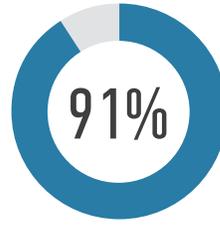

“HELPING INDIVIDUALS BECOME STRONGER AND MORE INDEPENDENT. THEY GENUINELY CARE ABOUT EACH AND EVERY PERSON.”

- Guardian

SATISFACTION

of persons served agree that HNNR provides high quality of services, therapies and supports of persons served agree that HNNR helped them meet their goals and attain the highest level of independence possible of persons served agree that HNNR provides a clean, comfortable and safe environment of persons served are satisfied with the opportunities for family members involvement of guardians report satisfaction with opportunities for family members involvement of guardians report satisfaction with HNNR providing a high quality of care

WE BELIEVE IN COMEBACKS.

VISIT HOPENETWORKREHAB.ORG OR CALL OUR ADMISSIONS TEAM AT 855.407.7575.

